Actions which may be taken may include but are not limited to: a. Discussing the facts of the complaint with the complainant. b. Where appropriate and applicable, discuss the complaint with the respondent giving details of the complaint and complainant, giving cause to procedural fairness. c. Where appropriate and applicable, encourage and facilitate the disputants to engage in mediation on an informal level. d. Interview all parties individually, including any witnesses e. Conduct interviews privately and confidentially f. Where applicable, report the outcome of the meeting with the respondent to the complainant. g. Seek preferred outcome from each of the parties. h. Communicate with the student every time actions are taken and decisions once complaint has been resolved. i. Where appropriate, facilitate a dispute resolution meeting with parties involved (2) Where the parties cannot agree on a suitable resolution, provide the resolution you find most suitable and fair for all parties involved. Inform parties that they have the option to engage a third party / external arbitrator for a review of the complaints process (i.e. Training Ombudsman, Office of Fair Trading, Magistrate / Tribunal etc.). The complainant may recommend any Independent third party / external arbitrator who may facilitate a review. Where fees apply, this will be shouldered by the complainant. (3) Once resolution is finalised, document the details in an email sent to both parties as soon as resolution is reached. Send email with subject heading: 'Complaint Resolution'. Copy Student Services Officer in the email.
4	Student Services Officer / Complaints and Resolutions Manager	Closing a Complaint (1) Upon receiving the 'Complaint Resolution' email, update the log in the Complaints and Appeals Register. (2) Where additional action items are required as a result of the complaint, implement action items and lodge the action items in the Continuous Improvement Register. Tag the action item as resulting from the Complaints and Appeals Process. (3) All fields MUST be completed. If additional information is required to fill out the Complaints and Appeals Register or the Continuous Improvement

		Register, follow-up with the Trainer/Training Manager . See Continuous Improvement Policy for more details. (4) Change status on the Complaints and Appeals Register as 'closed' and file the document with the student's records.
